

Book Club Discussion Guide for Bad Policy

📖 Are there situations or characters you can identify with? If so, how?

📖 How did the characters evolve throughout the story? What triggered the changes? How do you think you would have reacted to those triggers?

📖 If you could spend a day with any one character, whom would you choose and why?

📖 In what ways did Bad Policy reveal the author's worldview?

📖 What theme(s) did the author emphasize?

📖 Do you think the relationship between Seamus and his son is healthy? Why or why not?

📖 Many of the crimes in Bad Policy are financial in nature. Have you reconsidered your family's financial security based on the shenanigans described in the book?

📖 Did any part of the book make you uncomfortable? If so, why did you feel that way? Did this lead to a new understanding or awareness of some aspect of your life you might not have thought about before?

📖 Many of the characters broke the law for what they perceived to be the greater good? Is it always justified? Never justified? Or sometimes justified – and if so, which of the law breaches do you think were justified and why?

📖 If you could change one thing about the book, what would it be?
